

English 7 Worksheets

Adjectives

Degrees of Adjectives

Predicate Adjectives

Proper Adjectives

Adjective Review

Name _____

Adjectives

Directions- circle all adjectives in the following sentences.

1. Our new brick home is very spacious, but the garden area is small.
2. Her talkative mother uses the house phone all the time.
3. Some slow turtles moved under a large green bush.
4. Nancy's interesting trip to the English countryside was lovely.
5. My story is about an unusual journey of a tiny shrimp and the Terminator.
6. Their favorite ice cream shop has outdoor seating.
7. The boys' bedroom is an absolute mess.
8. The hairstyles in this magazine are crazy.
9. Many talented artists held a showing at the new art gallery.
10. Take your winter clothes and put them in the basement closet.
11. Our first concern was for the 30 college students.
12. The woman returned to her suburban home after going to the grocery store.
13. The lucky winner shouted a joyful scream.
14. The little black puppy was both clumsy and adorable.
15. My birthday dessert was tasty but too sweet.

Name _____

Degrees of Adjectives

Directions- choose the correct adjective in each sentence.

1. This sandwich is (more delicious, most delicious) than that one.
2. Of the triplets, Peter is the (smaller, smallest).
3. Olivia's hair is (curlier, curliest) than when she was a baby.
4. This is the (most dangerous, more dangerous) road that I have ever driven on.
5. Lois is a (gooder, better) mechanic than I.
6. That hill is the (taller, tallest) one of the three.
7. This is the (more fantastic, most fantastic) book of the twenty that I have read this year.
8. Of all the circus acts, the dog jumping was (sillier, silliest).
9. My new car is (more powerful, most powerful) than my old one.
10. Both rings are lovely, but I think the larger one is (more attractive, most attractive).
11. She is the (luckier, luckiest) person I know.
12. I think that this puppy is the (cuter, cutest) one in the entire litter.
13. The tennis ball is (smaller, smallest) than the basketball.
14. This is the (baddest, worst) show I have ever seen.
15. Which one of the twins is (more sensitive, most sensitive)?

Name _____

Predicate Adjectives

Directions- underline the subject once, the verb twice. Circle the predicate adjective and draw an arrow to the noun it is describing.

1. The bowling ball is red.
2. Do you feel happy?
3. The book we are reading for literature is interesting.
4. My apple tasted very sweet.
5. Their dog is very old.
6. The bread became stale.
7. This lesson was difficult to understand.
8. Some of the kids felt sick after eating the pizza.
9. The song sounded stupid.
10. Many cups were empty.
11. Those muffins smell delicious.
12. My feelings remain fond for you.
13. Will your hair stay short for the rest of the year?
14. Some dolphins were amusing to watch.
15. The gold appears to be damaged.

Name _____

Proper Adjectives

Directions- circle proper adjective and draw an arrow to the noun it describes.

1. Have you ever eaten roman meal bread before?
2. I like to watch Polish dancing.
3. Did you order Dutch tulips for Mother's Day?
4. The Babylonian gardens are lovely.
5. When does the Jewish new year begin?
6. The car was parked along the San Diego freeway.
7. Several people attended the European tour.
8. Those Mexican jumping beans are very cool.
9. The Sony stereo is very loud.
10. Jane's salad arrived to our table first.
11. We ate Danish sweet rolls for a snack.
12. The Kodak photos were developed yesterday.
13. His parents met at a Floridian mall.
14. Take me to a small, Swiss village please.
15. Molly owns 2 German shepherds.

Name _____

Adjective Review

Descriptive Adjectives- write 3 descriptive adjectives for each noun.

1. Ball - _____
2. Room - _____
3. Woman - _____
4. Day- _____

Predicate Adjectives- cross out any prepositional phrases. Underline subject once, and the verb twice. Circle the predicate adjective and draw an arrow to the noun it is describing.

1. A few winter storms had become fierce
2. A customer seemed angry about the service.
3. That fire drill bell sounded shrill.
4. The young lady is excited about her new job.
5. At the end of the day, he grows very tired.

Proper Adjectives- underline any proper adjectives and draw an arrow to the noun it is describing.

1. A Spanish village is very charming.
2. John was born in a Chicago suburb.
3. Do you have a Macy's catalog?
4. Kendra likes Swedish fish.
5. Have you seen a Franklin stove?