

Bible Lessons April 14th - May 1st

We will be continuing to use the S.O.A.P. Biblical study method through our next round of lessons. Last time, we focused on Psalms that deal with anxiety. This time, we are focusing on Psalms about praise and worship. As you know, worship isn't just about the songs we sing on Sunday morning at church. Worship is about how we live our daily lives. Worship is loving God back! We must remember to praise Him through difficult times just as we praise Him through times of peace and certainty. Let's use this time in our lives to learn to trust and worship God like never before. It's an opportunity to grow in faith!

If you turned in your notebook for the last round of work, please either begin a new notebook, take pictures of your individual S.O.A.P studies and email them to me, or type them up in a word document and email me the attachment. Please don't turn anything in before May 1st. I don't want you working ahead. The point is to have you reading the Word of God daily. I'm praying for you!

Please read the Psalms in their entirety, choose one verse from each, and use the S.O.A.P. study method.
