

Advanced French,

Hope you are all well and you have been keeping up with your work. I pray that the assignments have not been too difficult for you.

You will continue in the workbook for April 14-17. The assignments are once again on a chart. The workbook exercises are the honor system for now, but I will eventually need to see your workbooks.

Then you will start to read (not translate) your first French novel. How exciting! It is a short and readable one and fairly enjoyable, I hope. There is a glossary in the back, and you also have your large dictionaries. Make a French/English list of any vocabulary you have to look up in order to understand the story. Then answer the questions in French at the end of each chapter. You do not always have to use complete sentences. I hope this will be a good experience for you.

Once again I am praying we will be together again soon and things will return to normal.

Mrs. Rosio
