

Hello, Ninth and Tenth Grade! I pray you are doing well and doing your work. I am concerned because I have only received something from one student. You do NOT want to get behind. You are still being graded and will have grades for the school year. I know this is TOUGH, but God will get us through. I miss you all very much. I would rather be in class telling Noah to take his hood down or asking Zane about his interesting hoodies. =) I hope you like the book. There is an old movie we would have watched if we were together. I'm not sure it would be on Netflix or anything though. =\ Keep praying and seeking Jesus. Be kind and love one another.

Love in Christ,

Mrs. KO =)
