

This is your final English packet for the year. It is a review of all the things we have gone over this year. It is pretty hefty in size so break it into pieces. Each section contains 10-25 questions. Doing a couple sections each day will make the load easier. Some sections will be easier than others. Use your books if you are having trouble, but you may also reach out to me if you need help.

Name _____

English Final Worksheets

CAPITALIZATION- cross out each incorrect small letter and write the correction above it.

1. Theodore roosevelt said, "speak softly and carry a big stick".
2. O lord, how manifold are thy works.
3. The lord is my shepherd; i shall not want.
4. Rio de janeiro is brazil's largest city.
5. The fda is responsible for protecting public health.
6. On tuesday, i have an appointment with dr. turner.
7. The book robinson crusoe was written by Daniel defoe.
8. The titanic left england on april 10, 1912.
9. The santa maria was one of christopher columbus's ships
10. The michael's family moved to thirty-second street.
11. Max's aunt lisa and uncle mike moved from dallas, Texas, to pittsburgh, pennsylvania.
12. The statue of liberty is located on liberty island.
13. On christmas day, dr. jones treated 150 patients.
14. nasa directed all space shuttle missions for the united states.
15. The painting praying hands by Albrecht Durer tells the story of unconditional love.

PUNCTUATION- Add all necessary punctuation for the following sentences.

1. Venus the brightest planet lies under a thick blanket of clouds
2. Yes Peter James and John were disciples.
3. Have you ever read Walter Edmonds short story entitled Death of Red Peril?
4. On September 2 1945 World War II came to an end

5. Chris do you know when the Titanic sank
6. In 1 Thess. 5 22 we read Abstain from all appearance of evil
7. Keep thy heart with all diligence for out of it are the issues of life
8. Do you have my yellow lead pencil Mark?
9. Henry Hudsons ship the Half Moon brought a crew of explorers to North America as early as 1609.
10. One of Marias favorite paintings is Jan Vermeers Young Woman and the Water Jug.
11. There are twenty-four states west of the Mississippi River, and there are twenty six states east of the Mississippi
12. For the experiment we will need the following materials a glass a cup of salt two iron nails and some iodine.
13. When King Solomon had explored this wolrds wisdom he lamented Then said I in my heart, that this also is vanity.
14. Yes a matter of fact I do need a few things from the store
15. Truly my soul wait on God from Him comes my salvation
16. He opened the rock and the waters gushed out they ran in the dry places like a river.
17. To amen the Constitution a three fourths majority of the state legislatures must be obtained
18. The Lord is with me as a mighty terrible one therefore my enemies shall stumble
19. Jason Jones has taken up the hobby of numismatics that is he has become a coin collector.
20. Pontius Pilate the Roman Empires representative in Judea asked What is truth?

THE SENTENCE- underline the subject once and the verb twice. On a separate sheet of paper diagram the subjects and verbs from these sentences.

1. Mary Lennox found a secret, neglected garden and worked to bring it back to life.
2. As a young colt, Beauty lived with Farmer Grey and learned to work hard.
3. During the summer, Tom Sawyer hunter for buried treasure and fished in the river.
4. Laura Ingalls enjoyed traveling in the covered wagon and looked forward to living in Kansas.
5. Jim Hawkins discovered a treasure map and soon found adventure.
6. The spider Charlotte spun her web each morning and saved Wilbur the pig's life.
7. After seeing three ghosts, Ebenezer Scrooge visited his nephew and took care of Tiny Tim.

8. Megan, Joe, Beth, and Amy encountered many challenges as they waited for their father come home from the Civil War.
9. Robinson Crusoe was shipwrecked and spent twenty-eight years on a desert island.
10. Anne Shirley was adopted by Matthew and Marilla Cuthbert and became friends with Diana Barry.

VERBS- Underline the verb. Write action if the verb shows action, write linking if the verb links. If it is a linking verb draw an arrow to show which word is linked to the subject.

1. _____ Alexis grew tired of the car ride.
2. _____ Abe tasted the warn red velvet cake that was on the stove.
3. _____ Mercury is the smallest planet in our solar system.
4. _____ The jaguar remains a predator at the top of the food chain.
5. _____ Plants grow best when there is plenty of sunlight and water.
6. _____ The little boy had become weary after a day at Grandma's house.
7. _____ The giraffe looked around for some food.
8. _____ We smelled the aroma of steak cooking.
9. _____ Rapheal was an Italian painter and architect.
10. _____ Melanie appeared radiant after winning the swim meet.

AGREEMENT- circle the correct verb in parentheses.

1. Line A and Line B (is, are) parallel in problem thirty- two.
2. (Doesn't, Don't) the period and the comma always go inside the quotation marks?
3. My shoes (is, are) untied, and I cannot bend down to tie them.
4. The founder and director of the organization (is, are) Mrs. J. W. Wells.
5. Neither the kitten nor the dogs (remains, remain) inside the house.
6. Five gallons of ice cream (was, were) not enough to feed such a large crowd.
7. Civics (explains, explain) the obligations of a citizen to his town and country.

8. Ham and cheese (is, are) Dad's favorite sandwich.
9. The church (has, have) decided to build a new building on Ninth Street.
10. There (isn't, aren't) too many more days remaining in this month.
11. The pictures in this new magazine (shows, show) the rugged beauty of the West.
12. The Organization of American States (has, have) its headquarters in Washington, D.C.
13. The lug nuts on the front wheel (wasn't, weren't) properly tightened.
14. Either the choir or Mrs. Johnson (sings, sing) the special music on Sunday nights.
15. The Mississippi River and the Ohio River (forms, form) important river systems.

DIRECT OBJECTS-underline the subject once, the verb twice and circle the direct objects.

1. American Shipwrights and fisherman perfected the schooner.
2. Frederic Tudor, a Boston merchant, sold ice, tea, and spices.
3. Whaling brought large profits during the 1700s and 1800s.
4. Until the introduction of kerosene in 1860, whale oil lamps gave the best light.
5. David Bushnell built the first American underwater craft.
6. At 35,820 feet, the Trieste touched the bottom of the ocean.
7. The submarine USS Tennessee can launch missiles without surfacing.
8. The Navy did not use airplanes and aircraft carriers extensively until World War II.
9. Thomas Andrews designed the Titanic.
10. The German U-Bombs attacked the American aircraft carriers.

INDIRECT OBJECTS- underline the subject once, the verb twice, circle direct objects and box the indirect objects.

1. Spain gave France territory in the New World.
2. A faithful Christian will give the Lord a tithe of his income.
3. Mother sent Isabella a birthday package.
4. A distant cousin bequeathed Paul some property in Germany.

5. The king of England gave the Puritans permission to settle in the New World.
6. Have you yielded Christ your life?
7. Mr. Stephens gave his class a prize for winning the spirit competition.
8. Father handed Abby a note for the teacher.
9. Ezekiel passed Michael the soccer ball to score the winning goal.
10. Our society presented Charity Hospital a check for a thousand dollars.

PREDICATE NOMINATIVES- Underline the subject once, the verb twice, and circle the predicate nominatives.

1. Moses was the meekest man in the world.
2. The gorilla is the largest member of the ape family.
3. Spain and Portugal became the first nations to have colonies in America.
4. Gandhi was the leader of the Indian independence movement.
5. Greenland is the largest island in the world.
6. One of the smallest countries is San Marino.
7. The Amalekites were Israel's enemies.
8. Adoniram and Ann Judson became pioneer missionaries to Burma.
9. Dwight L. Moddy was a great American evangelist.
10. Marie Curie was a famous physicist from Poland.

OBJECTS OF THE PREPOSITIONS- circle the object of the preposition in each sentence

1. We sang a hymn of the early church.
2. President Obama met with the Prime Minister of Canada.
3. We sent out offerings to the Asian missionaries.
4. The Israelites women sang praises to God by the Red Sea.
5. God gave Hezekiah an extra fifteen years of life.
6. The lad brought Andrew the lunch of loaves and fishes.
7. A package arrived for Bailey yesterday

8. God delivered the Ten Commandments to Moses.
9. Moses took the children of Israel these new commandments for living.
10. President Ford placed a wreath at the Lincoln Memorial.
11. Brandon and his family will be traveling to South Dakota.
12. Isaac, the son of Abraham, was the father of Esau and Jacob.
13. Ben placed the fish into the cooler and baited another hook.
14. Anna placed the soap under the kitchen sink.
15. Dad loved the gift from Gabriella.

PRONOUNS- circle the correct pronoun in parentheses

1. The park ranger gave whistles to (she, her) and the others.
2. Dad and (I, me) went on camping trip in the Colorado Valley.
3. Eric's church sent (he, him) a package for Thanksgiving.
4. Mr. Nickson gave tennis lessons to Liliana and (she, her).
5. The fastest writers are (she, her) and Miranda.
6. Mr. Hawkins asked Jeremiah and (he, him) a different question.
7. Lizzie sent her roommates and (she, her) a postcard from the Bahamas.
8. (She, Her) and Lily are going shopping tonight after supper.
9. Mr. Phillips taught (we, us) boys about mechanics.
10. Mr. Macon told George and (he, him) a funny joke.
11. Did Mr. Jones defeat Dr. Roberts and (they, them) in the county elections?
12. Lucy and (I, me) did some sewing this weekend.
13. The mayor presented Mrs. Abbot and (she, her) with the key to the city.
14. Mom and (they, them) gave Dad a fishing rod for Father's Day.
15. The mural on the wall was done by Grant and (he, him).
16. The winner of the contest is (she, her).

17. Is (she, her) the one that got first place in the piano competition.
18. Isn't the Lord wonderful to (we, us) Christians?
19. The guest of honor will be (he, him).
20. Grandma sent (she, her) and Mikayla dolls for Christmas.
21. Our history teacher asked (we, us) students about our class party.
22. Summer and (she, her) made a huge bowl of potato salad for the picnic.
23. From the back of the church came (he, him) and his father.
24. Would you present (he, him) and the scout troop the award.
25. The flowers planted along the sidewalk belong to Emily and (she, her).

ADJECTIVES- Underline each adjective in the sentence and then draw an arrow to the noun it is describing.

1. John's green tie is very bright.
2. Their small pond, filled with blue and green fish is near the rose garden.
3. The hungry bears looked for food in the empty trashcans of the deserted camp.
4. A cold, icy wind tore savagely at the woman's scarf.
5. The fire, warm and glowing, shielded the weary hunters from the howling wind.
6. The cool, leafy shade of the oak tree provided a refreshing relief from the unrelenting rays of the summer sun.
7. The old, rugged cross stood on the rocky hill of Golgotha.
8. Laura's idea to make red cushions was readily accepted by the ladies sewing circle.
9. His long vacations provided sufficient time for him to find a profitable summer job.
10. The ferocious, striped tiger roared through the metal bars of its cage.
11. Mother's porcelain dishes are only used when special guests visit our home.
12. The old, godly prophet rebuked the wicked, grasping king.
13. Young Rehoboam was foolish; he would not obey the wise counsel of Solomon's advisors.
14. The Beautiful Victorian house was elegant, decorative trim reminded Harry of England.
15. The tiny, white kitten with blue eyes won the hearts of the young children at the fall fair.

