Essay

I want each of you to write me a one page essay. This essay should be typed using size 12 font and times new roman. The subject of this essay is what you want to do after this quarantine period is over. Be creative, tell me what you would do, where you would go. Give me lots of details. Who is going to be there with you. What is that day going to be like. How will you feel being outside again. Try to be realistic but do not be afraid to dream big.

After you type your essay, read it to a family member. Tell them about what you want to do. Ask them what they will want to do. Get a conversation started. Did they want to do something with you?
