

Hello, Juniors and Seniors! I hope you liked The Great Gatsby. You should watch the movie with Leonardo DiCaprio (Gage =]). It is very well done. I am excited about your American Dream projects. Those should be finished by today (Monday, 5/4). This is the last day I will accept them.

We are starting Fahrenheit 451 by Ray Bradbury. I think you will all like it. It's a dystopian novel that addresses many themes that are very relevant even today. You will read it online like Gatsby. This link <https://www.fsusd.org/cms/lib03/CA01001943/Centricity/Domain/2034/Fahrenheit%20451.pdf> or search "Fahrenheit 451 by Ray Bradbury book pdf this one DON CONGDON." Unfortunately, I couldn't find one with page numbers. And this book doesn't have chapters so you will just have to trust the questions are in chronological order. You will be writing a paper. That information is included here. It's not your normal thematic paper. It's actually kind of fun. =)

I pray you are all dealing with this okay. I was excited to see some of you on Zoom, even if you were playing video games while we talked (Cole =|). Please pray, go outside, read your Bible, and talk to people. Be kind to everyone. We are all struggling. Take care of yourself and each other.45rttttttttttt

Love in Christ,

Mrs. KO =)

Fahrenheit 451 “Paper”

* 100 points

* Fahrenheit 451 is about banned books or the elimination of books.

Pretend like a lot of books are being banned and some are books you love or have had an effect on you. What books would you save if you could?

- Choose 10 books that you have read that have changed the way you think.
- Give the title and author.
- Give a brief summary of the book (shouldn't be fewer than four sentences, shouldn't be more than ten sentences.) Then tell why that book had such a huge effect on you. Why should it be saved? Give your favorite quotes from the book – ones that made you think, ones that illustrate the way you want to live, even just some outstanding, beautiful writing.
- You need to be passionate in your reasons why these books are important. Be persuasive.
- You may not choose the dictionary or any other reference book. If you choose the Bible, choose the whole Bible as one choice or one book of the Bible as one choice. You can't use books in the Bible as all 10 choices.
- Spelling, punctuation, coherence, etc. count.
